

JUDGE – Mr Kurt Morton (NSW)Judge's Summary report and critiques – N&HRGSD Club 27th July 2024

Thank you to the Newcastle committee for the invitation to judge. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to those who make the show possible, with particular thanks to Paul & Kay York, ring steward Yvonne Yun, and stenographer Leeanne Lynch. It's always a pleasure to attend the Newcastle show, although it is usually held under sunny skies. Placings and critiques were accepted by exhibitors graciously, with very good sportsmanship on the day.

Entry Statistics: German Shepherd Dogs - Total 46 entered, with 37 exhibited, comprising just over 65% SC and 35% LSC. Many of the classes had a small number of entries, and unfortunately, not many males were exhibited, which is common across Australia.

Despite a smaller entry, I was pleased with the quality of the animals exhibited. Overall, the animals were quite mixed in type and proportions. Exhibits generally had very good heads and expressions, good length of necks, and good toplines. There was a large variance in the length and angle of upper arms and depth of hindquarters, with many quite pronounced. All animals were within the acceptable size ranges, and all animals eligible for Excellent were awarded the grading.
